While the perception may be of change, we want to emphasize how much will stay the same. Our decision to partner with Loren D. Stark Company was based on their values being analogous to what we believe at Pathway Retirement Resources. Ultimately, we both understand the people who surround you are what make an organization unique. You will not experience a change in your primary plan contact and we will continue on as before with an emphasis on enhancing client relationships and developing new business.

This partnership brings technological modifications to your existing service and makes available industry resources by means of ERISA attorneys, Actuaries, and many additional well-credentialed professionals.

We look forward to our continued relationship and welcome your feedback.

Our best!
